Museum, Historic Markers, War Memorials

Essex County Museum

Opened in 1996, Essex County Museum is an excellent place to learn of local history. The history of Essex County in some detail is displayed on the Museum website - check out the timeline.

Located at 218 Water Lane in the historic district in Tappahannock. Permanent exhibits displaying artifacts and historical research tell the story of Essex County history from prehistoric times into the twentieth century. Walking tours are available on request. Call 804-443-4690 for details.

Essex County Historic Markers

Visit the self-guided visual tour of all 37 historic markers and war memorials in Essex County: Essex County Historic Markers

Essex County War Memorials

Complete list of the Essex Veterans, starting with the French and Indian Wars, Revolutionary War, War of 1812, World War I, World War II, Korean War, and Vietnam War: Essex County War Memorials