Places to Stay

Lodging

With so many activities to participate in and sights to see in Essex County, a single day usually just will not be enough time. And after that long afternoon of shopping for antiques, boating, walking around town, or golfing, you look forward to a good night's rest. From the historic Linden House, a restored 18th century colonial brick home, to the newly opened and completely restored Essex Inn right in the historic downtown area, Tappahannock and its outlying areas provide a variety of quality places to stay. So come visit us - and stay awhile!

The Essex Inn, a Virginia bed and breakfast, was built in 1850 and is located in the Historic District of Tappahannock. The Inn is the newest of thirteen buildings on our walking tour, the oldest having been built in 1680. A gracious alternative to Tappahannock hotels, The Essex Inn has been masterfully restored to its early grandeur and now invites you to share the experience of elegant tidewater living. We're the gateway to the Northern Neck, where colonial history has deep and prosperous roots and nature seems to know no bounds.
